. The proposal to levy lekin on exports from South Formosa has, naturally enough, roused strong opposition in Takow and Taiwan. The natives and foreigners engaged in tradealike protest against an impost that threatens to strangulate the important and growing industry of sugar planting in Formosa. The foreign merchants have held a meeting on the subject, at which resolutions protesting against the levy of this tax were passed, and it was decided to request the British Consul to make representations to the Chinese Authorities setting forth the objections entertained to the proposed impost.
